

August 2016

Dear Exhibitor,

Welcome to America's Center! We are excited that you are exhibiting in the 22nd Annual Halloween and Attractions Show, March 23-26, 2017.

At America's Center we offer each exhibitor several building services that range from electrical to food and beverage. Each contractor has met strict requirements in product and service quality. Because our mission statement is "Becoming America's Best Center", we are constantly improving the quality level of the products and services we offer. Therefore, please feel free to contact me if you have any special needs, require additional services or if our building services are not providing the highest quality level of products and services. I can be reached at (314) 342-5120.

Along with our other various building services, we also offer licensed security officers to man your booth during the closed periods of the show. To order this service prior to your convention date or to receive additional information, please contact Jourdon Morgan, Director of Public Safety at (314) 342-5163 or fax (314) 342-5040. The cost for the licensed security officer is $24.00 per hour with a four hour minimum.

You will also be able to order this service on-site by contacting the Show Security Supervisor, however, personnel availability cannot be guaranteed unless the request is received at least one week prior to the first show date.

Again, our goal is to help you achieve a successful and profitable show. Feel free to contact me at anytime.

Sincerely,

Brendon Wagner,
Director of Event Management

EXHIBITORS: WELCOME TO AMERICA'S CENTER!

MetroLink

St. Louis' light rail system, MetroLink, has been called one of the best mass transit systems in the country. The clean, efficient trains are a big hit with visitors and locals alike who want to see many of St. Louis' attractions without a car. The system – which begins at Lambert–St. Louis International Airport and covers 48 miles – ends in suburban Belleville, Illinois at Scott Air Force Base/Shiloh and stops at 37 Missouri and Illinois stations in between.

MetroLink's trains pull into stations near many of St. Louis' visitor attractions. These stations, listed in bold, are near the following attractions: Clayton – Shaw Park, dining, hotels, shopping; Skinker – Washington University, Edison Theatre, Mildred Lane Kemper Museum of Art; UM St. Louis North – University of Missouri St. Louis, Blanche M. Touhill Performing Arts Center, Mercantile Library; Delmar/Loop – St. Louis Walk of Fame, The Loop neighborhood; Forest Park – Zoo, Art Museum, History Museum, Science Center; Central West End – Central West End neighborhood, restaurants, Cathedral Basilica of Saint Louis; Grand – Saint Louis University, Cupples House, Museum of Contemporary Religious Art, Grand Center entertainment district theaters, Pulitzer Foundation for the Arts, Contemporary Art Museum; Union Station – Union Station festival marketplace, restaurants, entertainment, hotels; Civic Center – Scottrade Center arena, City Hall, hotels; Stadium – Busch Stadium, hotels; 8th & Pine – Central downtown, restaurants, Kiener Plaza, Old Courthouse, hotels; Convention Center – America's Center® convention complex, Edward Jones Dome, hotels; Arch/Laclede's Landing – Lumière Place, historic district, entertainment, President Casino, restaurants, Gateway Arch, riverboat cruises, hotels.

A one-way ride on MetroLink costs $2.50. Tickets may be purchased and validated at each station. Tickets from the airport station to downtown St. Louis cost $4.00. Day Passes for MetroLink and MetroBus are $7.50. Trains run every seven minutes during rush hours, every 10 minutes during non-rush hours and every 15 minutes in the evening during the week. For schedule information, dial (314) 231-2345. TTY: (314) 982-1555

Downtown Trolley

There is a new, more economical way to get around downtown St. Louis these days, thanks to the new Downtown Trolley. Colorful Metro buses that have been painted to look like trolleys now travel a circuit that links riders to many of downtown's most popular destinations, including St. Louis Union Station, Busch Stadium, the America's Center convention complex, City Museum, and dozens of restaurants and hotels. An all day pass is only $2 and can be purchased in the MetroRide Store located at Seventh Street and Washington Avenue. Visit www.metrostlouis.org for details.

MetroBus

The Bi-State system serves most areas of St. Louis and St. Louis County. Call the Transit Information Center (314) 231-2345, Monday through Friday, or visit the MetroRide store in the Visitor Information Center at Seventh Street and Washington Avenue in downtown St. Louis from 8:30 a.m.–5 p.m. Buses generally run from 4 a.m. until 2 a.m. The fare is $2.00. Greyhound Bus Lines, (314) 231-4485 or (800) 231-2222, operates service to and from the Gateway Transportation Center located on South 15th Street.

St. Louis by Car

An easy-to-use network of interstate highways runs through St. Louis making it a short drive to attractions. From the east, I-70, I-64 and I-55 head west across the Poplar Street Bridge and into downtown St. Louis. I-70 runs through downtown, past the airport and west through Missouri. I-55 turns south past the Anheuser-Busch brewery and continues through southeastern Missouri. I-64, which the locals call Highway 40, continues west through St. Louis, past Forest Park and to the Missouri River. I-44 begins in St. Louis and runs southwest along the former path of Route 66 to Springfield, Missouri.

Vans, Taxis & Limousines

Go Best Express, (314) 222-5300 or (877) 785-4682, provides van service from Lambert–St. Louis International Airport to downtown hotels for $21 one-way and $37 round-trip. Other area hotels are also served.

Taxi companies maintain stands at the America's Center convention complex, at the airport and major hotels throughout St. Louis. Taxi drivers are uniformed and their vehicles must meet strict standards enforced by the St. Louis Metropolitan Taxicab Commission including completing a hospitality training program run by the St. Louis Convention and Visitors Commission. Eleven limo services, offering everything from town cars to super-stretch vehicles, also operate in St. Louis.

Trains

Amtrak provides daily rail service to St. Louis. Stations are located in the St. Louis suburb of Kirkwood and downtown at the new Gateway Transportation Center located on South 15th Street.

St. Louis Metropolitan Area

St. Louis: America's Center for Meetings

St. Louis is located near the geographic and population centers of the United States. Four interstate highways converge in St. Louis, making the region easily accessible by car.

ALL WITHIN REACH[®]

There's so much to see and do in St. Louis, we thought we'd start you out with a few "must-see options."

- Ride to the top of the Gateway Arch, towering 630-feet over the Mississippi River.
- Enjoy world-class free attractions, including the Art Museum, Zoo, Science Center, Anheuser-Busch Brewery, Grant's Farm and the Missouri History Museum.
- Marvel at the Missouri Botanical Garden, one of the world's top public gardens.
- Free your inner child at The Magic House, St. Louis Children's Museum, the City Museum and other kid-friendly attractions.
- Cheer for the MLB's Cardinals and NHL's Blues.
- Flirt with Lady Luck at one of the area's six casinos.
- Experience live blues music in dozens of area clubs and taverns.
- Visit the heart of St. Louis through our friendly and charming neighborhoods.
- Take in the art at Laumeier Sculpture Park, the Contemporary Art Museum, the Pulitzer Foundation for the Arts, and The Sheldon Concert Hall, Ballroom & Art Galleries.
- Re-discover your heritage at the Old Courthouse, Griot Museum of Black History and Culture and Faust Historic Village.
- Visit the world-famous Budweiser Clydesdales at the Anheuser-Busch Brewery.
- Visit an artistic oasis in the heart of downtown. Citygarden offers a vibrant blending of lush plantings and internationally renowned sculpture.
- Fill an extra suitcase during a shopping trip through major malls and antique and collectible stores.
- Check out Ballpark Village across from Busch Stadium.
- Get an adrenaline rush on the world-class roller coasters and thrill rides at Six Flags St. Louis.
- Play Scott Joplin's ragtime tunes at the composer's historic home.
- Talk to the animals at Grant's Farm, Purina Farms, the Wild Canid Survival Center, the World Bird Sanctuary and the Saint Louis Zoo.
- Cruise the mighty Mississippi River on the Tom Sawyer or Becky Thatcher paddle wheeler.
- Count the mosaics at the breathtaking Cathedral Basilica of Saint Louis.
